OFFICE OF THE LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Thursday - 13 February 1964

1. [] T. Edward Braswell, Jr., on the staff of Senate Armed Services Committee, stated he would like to request for one [] an appointment with the Inspector General. Apparently this has something to do with household goods and effects left [] Arrangement were made for Mr. Earman to see [] at 10:30 on 17 February.

2. [] Talked with Representative Charles E. Bennett inviting him to address our Mid Year Course on 20 February. Mr. Bennett said he would be happy to do this and necessary arrangements are being completed for him to be picked up at 8:30 on the 20th. This office will work with Training to assure that the session will be sufficiently lively. Mr. Bennett also will be appropriately briefed.

4. [] James Ray in Representative George Mahon's office indicated they had an inquiry concerning the espionage TV program. He is sending the letter forward informally to see if we can be of any possible assistance. He also inquired about assistance in connection with the Taylor articles. I said this was being worked on and we would be in touch in the next day or so.

25X1 5. [] Representative Clarence Cannon called in connection with a possible meeting of the Subcommittee with the Director. He indicated that such a meeting could not be this week but that he would call the first thing next week. I thanked Mr. Cannon saying I would inform the Director.

25X1 6. [] Picked up from David Martin, Staff Assistant to Senator Thomas J. Dodd, a copy of the draft of Senator Dodd's speech on attacks against the Agency which, by present plans, will be given on the floor of the Senate on Monday. This speech is being reproduced and copies are being made available to the Task Force, to the Director and to General Carter so that we will be able to give any comments or suggestions by Friday morning. Martin emphasized that Senator Dodd took full responsibility for the opinions expressed in the speech but was anxious to be accurate as to the facts.
